2018 INPUT FINANCE PROGRAM GUIDELINES
FOR SPRING AND FALL CROPS

Guidelines:

- Complete enclosed credit application and program form. Include a “signed and dated” current financial statement, current cash flow statement, copy of most recent year’s tax return, and Proof of Crop Insurance.
- Lien: A first or second lien will be filed on growing crop.
- Include multi-peril crop insurance, with a minimum of 70% coverage. Prefer CRC type coverage.
- An Assignment of Indemnity of Crop Insurance will be submitted to crop insurance carrier.
- Customer will sign promissory note, security agreement, and UCC-1 if applicable.
- Customer is encouraged to contract their grain with Skyland Grain LLC for this upcoming year.

Benefits:

- Customer(s) input purchases throughout the month for growing crops are billed to their Input Financing account. Skyland Grain will manage the Input Financing account from the time of customer approval until the due date. We will include a spreadsheet with your mailed billing statement reflecting the transactions applied to the Input Financing Account throughout the month.
- In addition, the Input Finance Program allows our customer(s) to take advantage of Skyland Grain LLC fertilizer discounts when applicable.
- Customer(s) on our program are not required to make payment until maturity date. Our spring crop maturity due date is August 1, 2018, and our fall crop maturity due date is January 2, 2019. If a customer decides to pay-off their Input Finance account before the above specified due date there is no prepayment penalty.
